HAPPY NEW YEAR!

TWENTY-TWENTY IS HERE ALREADY

May your year be fulfilling and overflowing with happiness. We wish you and yours all the best this year and beyond.

A Quote for the New Year: "It's not what you eat between Christmas and New Year's that matters – it's what you eat between New Year's and Christmas that counts." ~ William A. Canady, In Boca Raton News, 1983 December 25th

HAPPY BISSEXTILE DAY – 29 FEB 2020

Leap year this year – for me this means my wife and I celebrate our anniversary on this magic once every four-year window.

Married since 1992 we celebrate our seventh anniversary this year. I know, I know – Awesome and Brilliant!

DEFINITELY WINTER TIME RIGHT NOW

Since I don't have to work out in the cold, I simply get to enjoy the best parts of the winter season. I hope you all can find yourselves enjoying these winter days. The cold is a great excuse to hunker down in the house with family and enjoy each other's company while you still can.
