THANKSGIVING & CHRISTMAS

HAPPY THANKSGIVING EVERYBODY!

It's that time of year again when many of us get to over-indulge in holiday foods. Hopefully there are many things to have been thankful for this year – despite the Corona Virus. Just for fun, here is a great “Thanksgiving” quote: “It is literally true, as the thankless say, that they have nothing to be thankful for. He who sits by the fire, thankless for the fire, is just as if he had no fire. Nothing is possessed save in appreciation, of which thankfulness is the indispensable ingredient. But a thankful heart hath a continual feast.”

HAPPY BIRTHDAY BOYS & GIRLS!

To those celebrating birthdays in November and December: “I wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright. I wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun more. I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive. I wish you enough pain so that the smallest joys in life appear much bigger. I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting. I wish you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess.

I wish enough hellos to get you through the final goodbye.” My friends, I wish you enough!” ~I am pretty sure this a Hindu blessing by the way. If it has an origin elsewhere please let me know.

HAVE A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Family is the center of these holidays. Without those you care about to share these holidays with, they are just like any other day, except with a lot of fancy food. We have to say though, there is almost always someone close to spend the holidays with. A Christmas quote for ya'll:

“In the old days, it was not called the Holiday Season; the Christians called it “Christmas” and went to church; the Jews called it “Hanukkah” and went to synagogue; the atheists went to parties and drank. People passing each other on the street would say “Merry Christmas!” or “Happy Hanukkah!” or (to the atheists) “Look out for the wall!”
