MALIGAYANG ARAW NG ST. PATRICK

HAPPY ST. PADDYS DAY!

March brings St. Patricks' Day, Daylight savings time and of course, SPRING TIME! Now that the COVID vaccine is getting administered to more and more people we are hopefully free to really enjoy this year's holidays and events.

At least we are all on the mend and it is very hopeful that everything is getting better each day. No matter what, there isn't really anything that can stop us Irish from celebrating 17th of March with a "green beer" or few. Fear not! There will be no irresponsible partying or driving during this holiday of one of our favorite Saints.

MALIGAYANG PASKO NG PAGKABUHAY

Celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ is what April brings and we call Easter. Happy Easter everyone! Have you ever attended a sunrise service?

They can be cold but I found it well worth the beauty and comradery of my fellow attendees. The hot-chocolate or coffee is awesome also. For those who might have a problem with a message of Christ I say to you oh well then not for you. I am not shoving anything down your throat nor am I getting bent out of shape for your beliefs. Having said that, our column, our choice of content.

MALIGAYANG ARAW NG BUWIS (Happy Tax Day)

Perhaps not the happiest of days but important enough you certainly do not want to neglect Tax Day. Uncle Sam can be ruthless is angered ya'll.

A HAIKU FOR POPS

*It's really funny
What triggers a memory
I cherish them all*
